

Erstellt von: Marc-Remo Kündig
Verteiler: Presse

Datum: 03. September 2021

Press Release

Zürich, 01. September 2021

Change in the management and sales management of Kündig Nahrungsmittel GmbH & Co KG Germany: Dr. Lutz Guderjahn becomes the new CEO. Sales management is taken over by Mario Schmidtmann as Director Sales & Marketing.

The management of the Kündig Group has succeeded in filling the position of managing director of Kündig Nahrungsmittel GmbH & Co KG Deutschland (KND) for the upcoming growth period. With Dr. Lutz Guderjahn, an entrepreneurial and internationally experienced manager has been won for KND. Guderjahn previously held various positions at Südzucker AG and ADM International. He succeeds Stefan Birzele, who is leaving the company after 8 years as Production Manager and Managing Director.

Mario Schmidtmann takes over the sales department of KND as Director Sales & Marketing. He was previously Global Sales & Marketing Director at Freeze Dry Foods and has broad sales experience and extensive know-how in the food sector. Isabell Hampeis - an experienced sales personality who has been with Kündig for 9 years - has been appointed as Mr. Schmidtmann's deputy.

About Kündig Group:

The Kündig Group is a family-owned production and trading company with headquarters in Zurich, Switzerland, that has been in business for over 100 years. Kündig specializes in high-quality dried vegetables, herbs, spices and mushrooms as well as grains, oilseeds and frozen products.

With the primary goal of constantly improving the quality and safety of food raw materials, the Kündig Group is consistently adapting to the increasing demands of the food industry. In Thuringia, more than EUR 10 million have been invested in innovations over the past 8 years.

Enquiry note:

Marc-Remo Kündig
Kündig-Gruppe
Group Business Development Officer
marc.kuendig@kuendig.com
+41 79 442 21 80